Southwest Airlines does not have an official corporate, ticketing, or customer service office in Amsterdam, Netherlands.

Southwest Airlines is a U.S. airline headquartered in Dallas, Texas, and it does not maintain a local staffed sales or corporate office in Amsterdam or elsewhere in the Netherlands. Official support and reservations are handled through the airline's centralized global contact channels rather than through a physical Amsterdam office. (Southwest Airlines)

These listings refer to operational information such as where Southwest flights might be handled and how to reach general airport assistance — but they are not official Southwest offices with dedicated Southwest staff.
