

1-866-829-1086 Southwest Airlines Athens Office

Southwest Airlines does not have an official corporate, ticketing, or customer service office in Athens, Greece. The airline is based in the United States (headquartered in Dallas, Texas) and does not operate a local office or staffed ticketing/sales location in Athens or at Athens International Airport (Eleftherios Venizelos). Southwest's official support and reservations are handled through its centralized global channels (website, call centers, and online support), not via a local office in Athens. (Southwest Airlines)

What Listings Might Show

- Some flight/airport directory sites list Southwest Airlines ATH Terminal information for Athens International Airport (e.g., a contact number and terminal location), but these references are not an official Southwest corporate or sales office — they typically represent generic airport or flight information, not a staffed Southwest office. (Terminal Find)
- Any phone numbers shown in those contexts (like the airport's main contact) are not Southwest's own Athens office numbers and are not operated by the airline.

How to Contact Southwest from Athens/Europe
