

1-866-829-1086 Southwest Airlines Bali Office

Southwest Airlines does not have an official corporate, ticketing, or customer service office in Bali.

Southwest Airlines is a U.S.-based airline headquartered in Dallas, Texas, and it does not maintain a staffed local office in Bali or at I Gusti Ngurah Rai International Airport (DPS). The airline's official support and reservations are managed through its central global channels (website, app, official call centers), not a local Bali office. (Terminal Find)

Airport Listings vs. Official Office

- Some online flight/airport directories list a “Southwest Airlines DPS Terminal” referring to general airport information (e.g., terminal details or contact numbers), but this is not a Southwest Airlines-operated ticket office or corporate location in Bali. (Terminal Find)
- Contact info shown in some listings (like a number for I Gusti Ngurah Rai International Airport) is the airport's contact, not Southwest's own local office. (Airports Terminal Hub)

How to Contact Southwest from Bali / Indonesia

Since there's no local office in Bali:

- Official Southwest Website: Use the airline's official site (southwest.com) to book flights, manage reservations, check flight status, and access support tools. (Traveloka)
- Phone (U.S. Customer Service): Call 1-800-435-9792 — the main Southwest customer service/reservations number (note that international charges may apply when calling from Indonesia). (Traveloka)
- Social Media & Email: You can also reach Southwest through its official social profiles or dedicated support options on its website. (APSense)

 Important: If you see a third-party listing claiming to be a “Southwest Bali Office” with services like baggage support or flight booking assistance, this is not an official airline office. Real Southwest support in Bali must be accessed via its official global contact methods above.

---

If you'd like, I can list the official Southwest contact numbers that are easiest to dial from Indonesia!