Southwest Airlines – Hannover (Hanover), Germany

There is no official Southwest Airlines office, ticketing office, customer service center, or physical corporate presence in Hannover, Germany (or at Hannover Airport). Southwest Airlines is a U.S.-based airline with its headquarters in Dallas, Texas, and does not operate staffed ticket or sales offices in Germany as a part of its standard international operations. (Wikipedia)

 What this means:

- Southwest doesn't maintain an authorized local office in Hannover for flight sales, ticket changes, customer service, or support.
- There are other airlines with offices or sales desks in Hannover (e.g., Turkish Airlines, Eurowings, Lufthansa), but Southwest is not among them. (airlinesofficedesk.com)

Why There's No Local Southwest Office

- Southwest's route network is primarily domestic within the U.S., with service into Mexico, Central America, and the Caribbean — it currently does not operate scheduled flights in or out of Hannover or other German airports as part of its own network. (Wikipedia)
- Because Southwest doesn't serve Hannover directly, there isn't a staffed airline office there like you might find for carriers that fly regularly into Hannover Airport (HAJ).

 Tip: Calling U.S. support from abroad may incur international charges — consider the live chat on the official Southwest site if available. (Wikipedia)
