

Are Delta and WestJet the same?

Dial Now

No, Delta Air Lines  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 and WestJet are not the same airline, but they do have a close partnership that sometimes makes them appear  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 connected. They are separate companies,  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 based in different countries, with different ownership structures, branding, and operating policies. However, their  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 long-standing cooperation allows passengers to book flights across both airlines more easily, which can cause confusion  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 for travelers who are unfamiliar with airline partnerships.

Delta Air Lines  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 is a major U.S. airline headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, and is one of the largest carriers in the world. It is a  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 founding member of the SkyTeam global airline alliance, which includes international airlines  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 such as Air France, KLM, Korean Air, and Aeroméxico. Delta operates a vast global network with flights across North America,  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 Europe, Asia, Africa, and South America. It also runs its own frequent-flier program, SkyMiles,  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 which is widely used and recognized worldwide.

WestJet,  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 on the other hand, is a Canadian airline headquartered in Calgary, Alberta. It began as a low-cost airline and has grown  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 into one of Canada's largest carriers, serving destinations across Canada, the United States, Mexico, the Caribbean, and parts of  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 Europe. WestJet is not a member of SkyTeam or any other global airline alliance. Instead, it operates independently  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 with its own loyalty program, WestJet Rewards, and its own fare structure and service model.

 +1 855+ 510+ 5815 Despite being separate airlines, Delta and WestJet have a strategic partnership and joint venture that allows them to cooperate  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 closely on flights between the United States and Canada, as well as some international routes. Through  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 this partnership, the airlines offer codeshare flights, meaning a flight operated by one airline can be sold under  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 the other airline's flight number. This allows passengers to book a single itinerary that includes both Delta and  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 WestJet flights, often with smoother connections and coordinated schedules.

The partnership  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 also provides benefits for frequent travelers. In many cases, passengers can earn and redeem Delta SkyMiles  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 on WestJet flights and may receive certain elite benefits such as priority check-in or seat selection,  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 depending on fare type and status level. However, these benefits are not identical to flying on Delta directly, and rules  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 can vary by route and ticket class. Baggage policies, onboard services, and seating options are still governed by the  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 airline actually operating the flight.

Ownership is  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 another key difference. Delta and WestJet are not owned by the same company. Delta is a publicly traded airline,  +1 855+ 510+ 5815 while WestJet is privately owned. Neither airline +1 855+ 510+ 5815 controls the other, and decisions about pricing, aircraft, staffing, and customer service are made independently.

In summary, +1 855+ 510+ 5815 Delta and WestJet are not the same airline, but they are close partners. Delta is a U.S.-based SkyTeam airline with +1 855+ 510+ 5815 a global network, while WestJet is a Canadian airline operating independently. Their partnership +1 855+ 510+ 5815 helps travelers connect between the U.S. and Canada more easily, but they remain distinct airlines with different +1 855+ 510+ 5815 loyalty programs, policies, and identities.
